Dear Members and Visitors

The Antigua yachting industry is a vital part of the Antiguan and Barbudan economy and you are the foundation of that community. If you are a visiting yachtsman, we welcome you to our shores and hope you have a fantastic time with us. The ABMA is here to serve and assist ALL of you and operates an office located at the National Sailing Academy on Dockyard Drive.

Have a wonderful time in Antigua and Barbuda and do come and see us or contact us if you need assistance.

Franklyn Braithwaite
President

The office is open year round
Monday to Friday from 9:00am – 5:00pm (except Public Holidays)

YACHT WORKERS
ASSOCIATION

The ABYWA is committed to ensuring its members adhere to deliver the highest standard of yacht service at all times. The ABYWA works with the marinas and the Antigua and Barbuda Marine Association to ensure that work provided to yachts is done by varnishers, painters and other craftsmen with the necessary skills and experience.

All members must wear a valid ID card which details their name and their specific field of work vetted by the association. Just ask and they will present their ID to you. If they are not a member you know they have not been vetted by the ABYWA.

THE QUICK GUIDE TO WHAT'S ON IN ANTIGUA

ACTIVE

HIKING

There are many groups who now hike all over the island regularly. Antigua Hash House Harriers – drinkers with a running problem – explore every second Saturday. There are also many marked trails around English Harbour starting from Galleon Beach or the Dockyard and from Wallings Reserve.

YOGA

Yoga Antigua keeps an update to date list of classes taking place at locations around the island.

BOOT CAMP

3 mornings a week on Falmouth Harbour Cricket ground at 6.30am. All levels welcome.

GYM & CLASSES

Energie in English Harbour and Jolly Harbour Gym have full equipped gyms along with upstairs at the Antigua Yacht Club Marina. Classes also take place at Energie.

DANCE CLASSES

The National Sailing Academy host classes on the stage and the grass. Tuesday's at 5.30pm Salsa Workout, Thursday at 5.30 pm Belly Dancing.

SAILING & WATERSPORTS

Dinghy sailing lessons and rentals are available at Antigua Yacht Club and the National Sailing Academy with the latter offering RYA Courses along with Kayak and SUP rental.

RACQUET SPORTS

Lucky Eddi's (formerly Temo Sports) offer both tennis and squash at the newly refurbished venue in English Harbour

DIVING AND SNORKELING

A number of Dive Shops are located around English Harbour and Jolly Harbour. Dive Carib and Soul Immersions are based in English Harbour, Indigo Divers in Jolly Harbour. There is some great snorkeling to the south side of Galleon Beach; the western side of Pigeon Point beach; Long Bay and Cades Reef.

KITESURFING

The best spots are Green Island, Nonsuch Bay and Jabberwock Beach. 4o Knots and Antigua Windsurf both offer lessons.

TOUCH RUGBY

An active Touch Rugby Vlub operates twice a week, Tuesdays and Thursdays at Falmouth Harbour Cricket Ground. Games are casual and anyone can turn up at 5pm.

CHILLING OUT

For individual spas and treatments check out Elements Antigua in English Harbour; Akparo in Nelson's Dockyard and Steph & Vlada's Studio in Jolly Harbour. Luxurium in Bay Gardens, Hodges Bay. For hotel spa days and treatments some of the best are at Carlisle Bay

Hotel, Curtain Bluff Hotel and Blue Waters Hotel.

PHYSIO, OSTEO AND OTHER THERAPY Great specialists are Akparo and Energie.

ACTION AND ADVENTURE

Flying high: Antigua Rainforest Canopy Tour offers a zipline through the rainforest, CalvinAir Helicopters provides helicopter tours.

POWER BOAT CUSTOM TOURS AND ON THE WATER ADVENTURE

Adventure Antigua and Creole Antigua Tours offer organized and custom tours. Stingray City, Wadadli Cats, Mystic, Excellence and Island Safari offer group excursions

HORSE RIDING

Springhill Riding Stables

FISHING

Overdraft Fishing Charters and Pacific Marlin

GETTING TO BARBUDA
